

CM60 Conference
Microphone Chairman Unit

Features

- Fully digital-control design
- Powered by system Control Unit. The output voltage is a safety voltage
- The unit is provided with a 1.5m 8P connection line, used for “cross” type line connection
- The condenser microphone with a replaceable windproof cover
- Elongated microphone neck available
- Microphone head with a red ring indicator displaying the speech status

CM60 is a chairman unit microphone, and is usually used together with its delegate unit CM61. In addition to the functions of a delegate unit, it has several priority functions and thus been used by the chairman of a meeting. It is perfect for conference room application.

Exclusive Distributon in Bangladesh

